

EDCO
COLLABORATIVE

CASE Collaborative

LABBB
Collaborative Programs
Since 1974

The EDCO, CASE and LABBB Collaboratives invite you to attend the Professional Development workshop:

REJECTED IEPs: TO SETTLE OR NOT TO SETTLE

October 30, 2014
8:30 AM - 11:30 AM

---

This half day workshop will provide insights from a special education director and school counsel regarding informal settlement discussions, mediations, BSEA settlement conferences, and the drafting of settlement agreements. Participants will learn:

- the pitfalls to avoid when drafting settlement agreements with families
- what language is a must in all settlement agreements
- how to approach the issue of settlement with families in a respectful manner

Participants are encouraged to share recent cases they have used settlement agreements and cases being considered for settlement agreements.

---

- Presenters: Colby Brunt, Partner, Stoneman, Chandler & Miller, LLP
Linda Chase, recently retired Director of Student Services for Lexington Public Schools and formerly Winchester and Westwood
- Audience: K - 12 TEAM Chairs, Special Education Administrators, Out of District Coordinators
- Location: EDCO Collaborative, Bedford
- Fee: Early Bird Registration ~ $125 CASE, EDCO, LABBB who register by October 16th; $150 non-members and anyone who registers after October 16th.
- Registration: Contact the office of Curriculum and Instruction in your district or the program manager in your collaborative. Participants will receive confirmation details via email from EDCO once the course has been finalized.
- Register by: October 16, 2014. Registrations received after the deadline will be accepted provided space is still available.

Questions? Please contact EDCO at (781) 259-3445.

For a complete listing of professional development programs, please visit www.edcollab.org.